

Week ending: 03.12.2021

Classes	Name	Reason
FCQ	Wren	Wren- you have been an absolute super star this week!! All of the grown-ups in the classroom have noticed how phenomenal you have been. You have been sounding-out and blending words as well as writing such great words. Very well done Wren. You have been a star
FCC	Avia-Mai	Avia-Mai has had a wonderful week. She has worked extremely hard and has been very kind to her friends, helping them with her learning. We are super proud!
	Zac	Zac has been a fantastic Jigsaw friend this week. He has shown all of our school values and has given thoughtful insight into our learning.
1GC	Myles	For designing and making a fantastic dinosaur land. He also worked really hard writing an evaluation for his model – thinking about how he made it? What he liked and What he would do next time? Well done Myles.
	Kane	Kane always makes really thoughtful comments during our Jigsaw sessions and he has a mature attitude towards the calm me section of the lesson. Well done Kane.
1AW	Harry	Harry was isolating last week but that didn't stop him from doing some amazing work at home. Well done Harry for doing this and continuing with your learning.
	Louie	We have been talking about bullying in our Jigsaw lesson today and about being part of a group and feeling left out or just wanting to do our own thing. Louie was very brave and decided that he didn't feel comfortable joining in a certain game and we said that was ok.
2HC	Fabian	Fabian contributed really well to all of the discussions and activities during our trip to Newark Castle. He clearly enjoyed himself and learnt lots from the experience.
	Bonnie-Rae	For being a super friend to everyone in class. Bonnie-Rae always shares her thoughts well in jigsaw lessons and knows how to help someone being bullied

2MA	Aubree	Aubree has been a superstar this week with her understanding of column subtraction. She is able to use the method and can recognise when she needs to exchange or not. Well done Aubree!
	Toby	Toby demonstrated a really good understanding of how bullying can be identified and how he could help or support someone who was being bullied in our jigsaw learning. I was very impressed with his answers.
3SH	Oliver	I have put Oliver into Gold book this week because he is an always child. Always working hard, always thinking about presentation, always polite to other children in the class. Happy birthday for Saturday, Oliver!
	All of 3SH!	I have chosen all of my class this week. We have been looking at a new class book discussing refugees and the children have been so respectful and mature when discussing issues around war and what it means to be a refugee.
3RM	Sienna	Sienna drew an excellent drawing of a lion's eye! She added detail with good choices of colour and sketching styles. It was beautiful and Sienna should be very proud
	Adam	For being an excellent friend and a calming influence on the class.
4LP	Julian	Julian is in gold book for super writing. He has written a report about Iceland. It is set out with a clear opening and a really lovely ending. He has also included a lot of detailed descriptions. Julian was also very mature and sensible about another issue this week. I was really impressed with his kindness.
	Izzy	For being really helpful and supportive to others.
4NM	Jessica S	For being an ALWAYS child – always ready, always doing her best and always working her hardest
	Lewis	For persisting and FINALLY learning how to tie his shoe laces!
	Joshua	Jigsaw friend for working in a sensible and thoughtful manner with someone he wouldn't normally work with – great partnership and cooperation
5NW	Ellis	Ellis has improved his focus and commitment to his work, which is lovely to see and is evident in his books. He is making better choices around the classroom and is enjoying his learning more, which is lovely to see-well done!
	Jigsaw Friend	Mollie is our Jigsaw Friend as we are currently looking at celebrating and understanding differences with children from different backgrounds. Mollie always treats people with kindness and respect and is a shining example of a Year 5 student!

5DP	Mack	Mack has blown us all away with his outstanding improvement in his presentation and handwriting. He is now forming all his letters accurately, joining beautifully and taking pride in every piece of work he produces. Not only has Mack done this for one piece of writing, he has kept it up for all of his work the whole week! The whole of Year 5 are as proud as they could be and they have all been aiming to improve their presentation as much as Mack. Keep up this incredible change of attitude Mack, you are awesome!
6SE	Lexi-Rose	Lexie has been away and missed the NFER assessments however this week she has got on with them exceptional well in the back of the classroom. I am incredibly proud of her efforts especially in maths.
	Leo P	Leo has settled in really well to a new school, picking up new routines with ease. He has made some great friends and I can't wait to teach him this year.
	Luke C	Luke is our jigsaw friend as he has shown incredible kindness to Leo, providing him with direction and support when he looks a little lost. Thank you for helping make Leo's first week in school an enjoyable one.
6WW	Dougie	Dougie has worked really hard this week on area this week. We have been solving problems and looking at using our place value knowledge to work out missing sides.
	Jake	Jake has been a fabulous helper in class this week, often getting me sorted at lunch time, thank you for all your help Jake.
	Ben	Ben is my other Jigsaw buddy as he offered some very mature contributions to our discussion on power. He has really walked the talk this week as he stayed in to help other children with their assembly
	Lunch time stars this week	Thank to our lunchtime squad which have helped this week They are from 5DP .  Thank you to Isabelle, Lily, Barnaby, Freya,  Amelia, Olivia , Reece and Lewi.
