

Week ending: 07.01.2022

Classes	Name	Reason
FCC	Ella	Ella has had an unbelievable week this week. She has worked so hard, constantly blowing away adults with her enthusiasm and love of learning. She has been a phonics superstar all week, we are all so proud Ella!
	Jigsaw: Ellena	Ellena had some fantastic ideas in our Jigsaw learning this week. We have been talking about challenges and what we should do if we find something tricky. Ellena said we should never give up, we should always try our hardest and ask for help if we need it.
FQC	Joseph	Joseph, you have been an absolute star this week! You have come back from the holidays so full of enthusiasm for your learning and school-life in general. We have been so impressed with your dedication, particularly in your work about "Six Dinner Sid". Well done Joseph
1AW	Emanuella Bella Isabella Emily Lucie	I have nominated these 5 ladies as my 'Paper Towel Brigade'. We had a major water bottle spillage in class at the beginning of the week and without me even asking these five young ladies jumped to it with paper towel at the ready and mopped up before I could even ask them to. So for being super helpful and on the ball well done.
	Jigsaw Stanley	Stanley every week in Jigsaw listens really well and joins in all that is asked of him. He puts his all into the work set and presents this faultlessly.
1GC	Freddie W	For being very helpful and caring with his friends outside at playtime.
	Jigsaw Olivia (Livvy)	For super work in Jigsaw – drawing about their successful moments.
2HC	Ruben	For completing some excellent independent work in Maths. It has been lovely to see your confidence grow, Ruben.

2MA	Toby	Toby has returned to school with a much better attitude to learning. This week he has listened really well to the teaching input and he has consistently tried his best to complete his work. I am very pleased with him – keep it up Toby, it will pay off for you!
3SH	James	James has made huge improvements over the last few weeks. His attitude towards learning has really changed and he is taking far more care of his presentation. Well done James, keep it up!
	Ava	I have been so impressed with Ava’s work ethic this week. She has been so eager to learn that she has been constantly asking me for extra questions in Maths! She has been consistently trying her best in all of her work and it has been lovely to see. Well done Ava!
3RM	Martha	The whole class were impressed when this week Martha played Jingle Bells on her guitar. She played confidently and we all really enjoyed it. Well done Martha, we look forward to hearing more music from you.
4LP	Charlotte	Charlotte is an always child. She always works really hard. She listens in class discussions and often has her hand up to answer questions. She consistently produces lovely work.
4NM	Janna Isabella M Fraser	All three children were super brave and went swimming today with the Year 5 children, even though they were a little nervous, they went and did their very best to continue their journey to becoming better swimmers! Well done!
5DP	Rebekah	For writing an amazing speech about climate change.
	Jigsaw Friend Isabelle	For being super brave at swimming
5NW	Alex P Jaimee G Isobella-Rose	These are all our new members of 5NW, they have settled well and are superb additions to the clan. They are working at making new friends and learning all the school routines. They have impressed me with how hard they have tried this week-well done!
	Jigsaw Friend Jai Jai	Jai Jai, for having a super growth mindset.
6SE	Daniel	Daniel is an always child. He always works hard, he is always pleasant and polite and kind to others in the classroom. Daniel has really impressed me with his perseverance in maths.
	Oliver C	Oliver has been a great help this week to members of staff since I have been away. He has been helpful and honest to the supply teachers and Mrs Sahall. Thank you Oliver.

6WW	Toby P Darcy Ben	Toby has been really focused this week and I was particularly impressed with his work on reading today and his positive approach to his maths. You have worked hard-well done. Darcy and Ben have really thought about ways that they can support other children. They have shown great kindness.
	Lunch time stars this week	Elise, Toby, Lily, Harriet, Reece, Noah, Thomas, Oliver, Josh
